PARENT GUIDELINES AND CODE OF CONDUCT

Interscholastic athletics at Beckman Catholic offer proof that athletic, spiritual, and academic success can thrive together in a supportive environment. As your children become involved in the athletic programs at Beckman Catholic, they will experience some of the most rewarding moments of their lives. Research indicates that a student involved in an extracurricular activity has a greater chance of success during adulthood. Many of the character traits required to be a successful participant in the Beckman Catholic athletic program are exactly those that will promote a successful life after high school. We hope the information provided within this document makes both your child's experience and your experience with the Beckman Catholic Athletic Program enjoyable and beneficial.

Parent/Coach Relationship

Both parenting and coaching are challenging. By establishing an understanding of each role, we are better able to accept the actions of the other and provide greater benefits to the student-athletes. As parents, when your child becomes involved in our program, you will be made aware of the expectations that are placed on your child with clear communication from the coach of your child's team.

Communication You Should Expect from Your Child's Coach

1. Information about members of the coaching staff and which coaches may be specifically working with your child.
2. Expectations the coach has for your child.
3. Location and times of practices and contests.
4. Team requirements, i.e. fees, special equipment, off-season conditioning, specific team rules.
5. Procedures should your child be injured during practice or a contest.
6. Discipline procedures that may result in the denial of your child's participation.

Communication Coaches Expect from Parents

1. Concerns expressed directly to the coach.
2. Notification of any schedule conflicts well in advance.
3. Specific concerns with regard to a coach's philosophy and/or expectations.
4. Specific medical problems that could adversely impact your child's performance or safety.

Appropriate Concerns to Discuss with Coaches

1. The treatment of your child mentally and physically.
2. Ways to help your child improve.
3. Concerns about your child's behavior.
4. Family concerns that may have an emotional impact upon your child and his or her athletic participation.

Parents may become disappointed by a lack of playing time. Coaches make judgment decisions based on what they believe to be best for all of the student-athletes involved and the team as a whole. As you have seen from the list above, certain things can be and should be discussed with your child's coach. Other things, such as the following items, must be left to the discretion of the coach.

Issues Not Appropriate to Discuss with Coaches

1. Playing time, team strategy, play calling, lineups, and substitutions.
2. Other members of your child's team.

Unacceptable Contact with Your Child's Coach

1. Prior to and during practice.
2. Prior to, during, or after a contest.

These are typically either very busy times or, in the case of a contest, emotional times for all parties involved. Hurtful comments may be uttered. Meetings of this nature do not promote resolution.

There are situations that may require a conference between the coach and the parent. It is important that both parties have a clear understanding of the other's position. When these conferences are necessary, the following procedure should be followed to help promote a resolution.

It is of utmost importance that the proper chain of command be followed. Though we understand your desire to talk with the Athletic Director or Administration first, those contacts will be referred to the appropriate coach.

If You Have a Concern to Discuss with a Coach, This is the Procedure You Should Follow:

1. Call or email the coach (during an appropriate time) to set up an appointment.
2. If the coach cannot be reached, call the Athletic Director at 875-7188 to help schedule the meeting.

What Can a Parent Do If the Meeting with the Coach Did Not Provide a Satisfactory Resolution?

1. Call and set up a meeting with the Athletic Director 875-7188 to discuss the situation.
2. At this meeting the appropriate next step can be determined.
