AMENDMENTS TO ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF
A. C. REYNOLDS HIGH SCHOOL BAND PARENTS ASSOCIATION, INC. (ACRHS BPA)

ARTICLE I
The name of the Corporation is: A. C. REYNOLDS HIGH SCHOOL BAND PARENTS ASSOCIATION, INC. (ACRHS BPA).

ARTICLE II
The duration of the Corporation is perpetual.

ARTICLE III
The purposes for which the Corporation is organized are:

a) The BPA exists as an incorporated organization to financially support and adapt to the changing educational needs of the entire high school band program and the objectives of the Band Director at A.C. Reynolds High School, Asheville, NC.

b) Its purpose is to organize exclusively for charitable and educational purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) and 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or corresponding sections of any future Internal Revenue code.

c) The Corporation is irrevocably dedicated to and operated exclusively for, nonprofit purposes; no part of the income or assets of the Corporation shall be distributed to, nor inure to the benefit of any individual. The BPA shall be noncommercial, nonsectarian and nonpartisan.

ARTICLE IV
The Corporation is empowered:

a) To buy, own, sell assign, mortgage or lease any interest in real estate and personal property and to construct, maintain and operate improvements thereon necessary or incident to the accomplishment of the purposes set forth in Article III hereof.

b) To borrow money and issue evidence of indebtedness in the furtherance of any or all purposes and objectives and to secure the same mortgage, pledge or other lien on the Corporation’s property.

c) To make gifts, donations, contributions, and other distributions to organizations which qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

d) To carry on any lawful activity calculated, directly or indirectly, to promote the interests and purposes of the Corporation, or to enhance the value of its properties under such powers and rights which are now and which hereafter may be conferred upon non-profit Corporations organized under the laws of the state of North Carolina.

ARTICLE V
Upon dissolution of the Corporation, the officers shall, after paying or making provisions for the payment of all of the liabilities of the BPA, disposing of all of the assets shall be exclusively for the purposes of the BPA in such manner, or to one or more exempt purposes as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code as the BPA officers shall determine, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any other assets not disposed of shall be disposed of by the Superior Court of the county in which the principal office of the BPA is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organizations as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes, or to such governments for such purposes.

ARTICLE VI
The Corporation shall establish membership in the Corporation and such members shall be in such classes and have such rights as may be designated in the Bylaws of the Corporation. The membership gives the right of change to these Articles over to the majority vote of the Officers.

ARTICLE VII
The number of Officers of the Corporation, their term and election may be fixed by the Bylaws, but shall not be less than three in number. However, the Officers shall serve without compensation. No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of or be distributed to, its members, officers, or other private persons except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of purposes set forth in these bylaws. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provisions of these bylaws, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on:

a) By a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the most recent Internal revenue Code;
